Q. 1

What evidence is there in your life that you are falling asleep spiritually?

Q.2

Is it hard for you to recognize/understand that our time on earth is so much shorter than it appears to be?

Q.3

How has spiritual laziness/falling asleep spiritually had an effect on your ability to live for what matters most?

Q. 4

With the reality that the “time of our salvation” (meaning death/Jesus’s return) is closer than we think, what priorities in your life seem less significant/more significant than they did before?

In response to the last question: make a change in your life this week that helps you to wake up spiritually and live for what matters most!
