DISCUSSION Q'S

1. Icebreaker: What is something you learned or took away from Sisterhood?
2. When you first encountered Jesus, what things held you back from going all in with Him? What things were easy for you to give up, accept, and change?
3. Describe yourself before 'Breaking the Jar' and after (before and after going all in with Jesus). What has been the most significant change?
4. What tempts you to go back to the shards of your old life? What part of your old life is or has been the hardest to turn from?
5. What freedom have you experienced since your jar being broken?
6. What spiritual discipline has been the most helpful for you to continue to put everything at Jesus' feet? i.e. Bible reading, confession, life group attendance, etc.
7. Challenge: Who in your life is still holding on to their jar? What could you do to help them have an encounter with Jesus this week?
